Report by Roy Wanta

God is the provider for this great work finished in Ohaukwu, Nigeria. Water! There is nothing like good, clean, safe water. We thank God for the generosity of those who provided for this extremely dire need in a place like this. Enough words cannot be said of gratitude by the people in the village of Ohaukwu and Pastor Simon. We also want to express our thanks to the people who bought the goats for the widows in Ohaukwu.

"If you pour yourself out for the hungry and satisfy the desire of the afflicted, then shall your light rise in the darkness and your gloom be as the noonday." - Isaiah 58:10 (ESV)

Esther is a widow Doug and I met in January, 2016. She had no place to live with her thirteen-year-old daughter. Esther used to carry things for people in the market until she hurt herself. She was very sick and Pastor Benjamin took her to the hospital. She is doing fine now, and I want to thank the people for helping Esther. We put up a stand and bought things for her to be self-sustaining, as we do for a lot of our widows we work with. Pastor Benjamin monitors the progress of the widows and follows up on them for some time until they become successful.

Cecilia is another widow Doug and I had met in January. She was selling one-liter bottles of kerosene, only about five or seven. It seems unimaginable that someone could try to make a living on such a small amount with her fifteen-year-old daughter. Thank you to those who helped this widow out.

“Whoever has a bountiful eye will be blessed, for he shares his bread with the poor.”
Proverbs 22:9 (ESV)

Mary is the leader on the right

The Kumasi widows co-op group is putting up a new building. Since their start over a year ago, they are expanding into a new market area with their grinding machines. What a great job these widows are doing! This widows co-op has it in their by-laws to put money away for expanding their business, paying themselves, helping a new group of widows each year to get started, and having money in a bank.

“If your brother becomes poor and cannot maintain himself with you, you shall support him as though he were a stranger and a sojourner, and he shall live with you.” – Leviticus 25:35 (ESV)

We will start asking interested people to collect study Bibles for the pastors in Ghana. They do not have computers and study Bibles are very important tools to help them with their sermons. I will be taking the Bibles on our next trip in about four months.

We thank God for all of those used by God to help “I Am” World Mission bring this all about.

We are helping people and changing lives, one life at a time. I leave with this scripture:

“For you have been a stronghold to the poor, a stronghold to the needy in his distress, a shelter from the storm and a shade from the heat; for the breath of the ruthless is like a storm against a wall.” – Isaiah 25:4 (ESV)
