Pastor Benjamin

Report by Roy Wanta

Where did the summer go? It seems like yesterday I was in Africa, and this week, I am back. I will be missing the Rosholt Fair this year. I am glad to meet my old friends and Benjamin. I will be spending time with Pastor Benjamin for a couple of weeks. Since my last trip, a new widows' co-op has been started in Fumesua. Bless those that gave and prayed to make this much-needed well possible. "And if anyone gives even a cup of cold water to one of these little ones, who is my disciple, truly I tell you, that person will certainly not lose their reward."

Matthew 10:42 NIV We have some widows who will be living in Krapa and selling water to continue in future improvement projects for Krapa widows.

Benjamin and I will be visiting about two or three new groups of widows near Kumasi. We will try to organize them to see if we can be a help to them. The only way we can is through those who are willing to help us support these ladies in need.

Our mission is to reach the world for God and point them to Jesus

If you can recall, Mary Mamu was the widow whose daughters were placed with relatives until "I Am" was able to bring them out of a bad situation and place them all together in their own place. She had fixed her hope on God. This woman of prayer reminds me of the prophetess Anna, the daughter of Phanuel, who was a godly widowed woman of 84 years that prayed and fasted in the temple area. Mary is now reunited with her four daughters, and with this help, she can keep them – her prize and joy – near her. "I Am" has been able to have a container built for her business. Also, one of her daughters is a seamstress, so a sewing machine was provided to her to help earn an income.

We forward this request from Pastor Benjamin Adusei:

Mercy Adwoa Pokua is not a widow; however, her situation is worse than that of a widow. This woman was married for about fourteen years and had five children with her husband. They went into farming and after working hard with the husband to succeed, he went for a new wife and, therefore, had relegated Mercy and her children. This has been a tough time for Mercy and her children. She has sent four of the children to her mother to help take care of them. She has been thinking of her problem so much, that she is growing lean.

We are therefore pleading to "I Am" World Mission and the good people of the United States to help – first of all, with some food, and also, to sustain her with a small business to cater for herself and her children, They would be glad when this petition would be granted.

Thank you,
Pastor Benjamin Adusei

Since our last newsletter, we had a party come forward and say they would like to help. Mercy has now received food, and she is now in the business of selling sandals.
