Report by Roy Wanta

Veronica Bio is the 73-year-old widow who collects straw from the bushes and sells it to the craftsmen for weaving basket and placemats so that she can get a small amount of money to buy food and take care of herself. Can you imagine selling straw for a living? In our January issue we told you that she has rheumatism bad and is in a lot of pain. Pastor Benjamin knew that she could not continue to sleep on the bare floor with such a condition, so he asked "I Am" if she could be helped.

Like they say, "a picture is worth a thousand words" and you can see that in Veronica's smile. She now has a wooden bed with a mattress and bedding for it. She also was given food to help her out. Veronica is very happy now, and she sends her regard to "I Am" World Mission.

"For then shalt thou lift up thy face without spot;
yea, thou shalt be stedfast, and shalt not fear:
Because thou shalt forget thy misery, and remember it as waters that pass away"

JOB 11:15-16

Juliana Oduro is the 47-year-old widow with four children that we had in our January's newsletter. Because of the debt from her husband's funeral, his husband's family members were taking her property she used for selling food away from her. Pastor Benjamin presented a plea for help so she could survive and support her children.

Today Juliana is such a happy woman because the place she sells her local food has now been titled in her name. Gratitude is sent to those that have given to "I Am" World Mission so that stories like this can have a happy ending.

*"O LORD, you hear the desire of the afflicted;
you will strengthen their heart; you will incline your ear to do justice to the fatherless and the oppressed, so that man who is of the earth may strike terror no more."*

PSALM 10:17-18

Afia Akoto was also in the January newsletter report. She and her husband were involved in an accident. Unfortunately, her husband died, and she was admitted into a hospital for seven months. Pastor Benjamin had issued a plea for Afia because her rent accommodations had expired, the landlord was demanding payment and she wasn't strong enough to work. She also had to care for four children.

Afia is now in her new rented room, recuperating without worry about where she will be living.

Martha Nyarkoh is 43 years old and has been widowed for two years now with three children to take care of. Three weeks ago, the house they were living in caved in, and they lost everything. Two days ago the town council ordered the house to be pulled down since it's a death trap for anyone to stay there. They have no one to stay with. Pastor Benjamin kindly opened up one of the classrooms in the school for a temporal shelter. He is pleading to the people of "I Am" World Mission to come to their aid. They would be very happy if their pleadings are considered.

Thank you
